Introduction
The Chancellor of the University of Tennessee, Knoxville (UT) is required to notify the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools Commission on Colleges of (SACSCOC) of any proposed modification of the essential characteristics of UT as an educational institution. We, the administrators, faculty and staff, are obliged to assist with recognizing and reporting such substantive changes.¹

SACSCOC is mandated by the U.S. Department of Education (USDEd) to “maintain adequate substantive change policies that ensure that any substantive change to the educational mission, program or programs of an institution after the agency has accredited ... the institution does not adversely affect the capacity of the institution to continue to meet the agency’s standards.”²

Failure to report these and other planned substantive changes (described in the table below) can result in loss of institutional accreditation. For that reason, and to preclude the possibility of the quality of programs being called into question, the following procedures for recognizing and reporting substantive change are established.

The administrative heads of both academic and non-academic units are responsible for being attentive to what SACSCOC considers a "significant modification or expansion of the nature and scope of an accredited institution" and for being aware of related information resources concerning accreditation (see http://www.sacscoc.org).

¹ Comprehensive Standard (CS) CS 3.12.1 The institution notifies the Commission of changes in accordance with the Commission’s substantive change policy, and, when required, seeks approval prior to the initiation of changes. (See Commission policy “Substantive Change for Accredited Institutions.”)

² U.S. Government Printing Office, 34 CFR Ch. VI (7–1–10 Edition), § 602.22 Substantive change. (as published in 64 FR 56617,
It is the duty of the provost, vice chancellors, deans, heads, directors, and like administrators to ensure that the university's SACSCOC Liaison is notified of planning for a modification that may prove substantive and that the Chancellor be informed of the determination of its status as soon as possible. Implementation of a change that clearly is or may be substantive cannot occur until the university notifies SACSCOC of its intention and receives approval.

Substantive changes can be addressed in several ways. In the SACSCOC substantive change policy (available at http://www.sacscoc.org/SubstantiveChange.asp), the approach is based on reporting requirements, i.e., notification only or notification and approval or required before implementation of a substantive change. While this is convenient for a regulatory entity, a university is more likely to consider such changes from an organizational level approach such as (1) Program/Course Level, (2) School/College/Department Level, and (3) Institutional Level.

Types of Substantive Changes

Program/Course Level:

1. Initiating coursework or programs at a different level than currently approved;
2. Expanding at current degree level or developing a new general education program (significant departure from current programs);
3. Initiating a certificate program at employer's request and on short notice;
4. Initiating other certificate programs;
5. Initiating joint or dual degrees with another institution;
6. Altering significantly the length of a program;
7. Initiating degree completion programs;
8. Closing an academic program (requires a teach-out plan);
9. Closing an approved off-campus site, branch campus, or institution (requires a teach-out plan for any affected programs at the site)
10. Adding a combination degree program that reduces the hours needed to complete the combined degree (e.g., combination baccalaureate and master’s degree; see Interpretation of Core Requirement 2.7.1 Program Length available at http://www.sacscoc.org/inst_forms_and_info1.asp in the section Interpretations to the Principles of Accreditation as approved by the SACS COC Board of Trustees)

---

3 SACSCOC defines a Dual Degree Program as separate program completion credentials each of which bears only the name, seal, and signature of the institution awarding the degree to the student; and a Joint Degree Program as a single program completion credential bearing the names, seals, and signatures of each of the two or more institutions awarding the degree to the student. See SACSCOC Policy Agreements Involving Joint and Dual Academic Awards
School/College/Department Level:

11. Initiating off-campus sites (including Early College High School programs offered at the high school);
12. Initiating distance learning (for the first time)\(^4\);
13. Initiating programs or courses offered through contractual agreement or consortium;
14. Entering into a contract with an entity not certified to participate in USDOE Title IV programs;

Example of School / College / Department Level Change: Entering into a consortial arrangement with an international university for the delivery of educational programming

Institutional Level:

15. Initiating a branch campus;
16. Altering significantly the educational mission of the institution;
17. Initiating a merger/consolidation with another institution;
18. Changing governance, ownership, control, or legal status of an institution;
19. Relocating a main or branch campus;
20. Moving an off-campus instructional site (serving the same geographical area);
21. Changing from clock hours to credit hours;
22. Acquiring any program or site from another institution;
23. Adding a permanent location at a site where the institution is conducting a teach-out for students from another institution that is closing;

Example of Institutional Level Change: Change of reporting line for the Athletic Director from the University System President to the UT Chancellor.

Some substantial changes may never occur; however, we are required to be aware of them and address them in policy.

Substantial changes that relate to current and proposed academic programs are included in the guidelines for curricular submissions prepared by the Undergraduate and Graduate Councils for units to follow (guidelines are available at the Councils’ websites). Units must consult these documents when considering significant changes to academic programs.

SACSCOC’s specifications of time lines for notification and means of requesting approval appear in the tables below.

SACSCOC issues revisions to their Substantive Change Policy typically in January and June following the actions of the Board of Trustees. The UT SACSCOC Liaison regularly reviews the UT policy to ensure it conforms to the SACSCOC Substantive Change Policy, which is available at http://www.sacscoc.org/SubstantiveChange.asp. Notification of updates to the UT Substantive Change Policy will be distributed by the university's SACSCOC Liaison to all vice chancellors, deans, and heads through appropriate channels.

\(^4\) UT was first authorized to offer distance learning programs February 12, 1998.
Tables for the various substantive changes requiring notification to SACSCOC or approval form SACSCOC prior to implementation. Always consult with the SACSCOC Liaison who will have more detailed information regarding any substantive change documentation required by SACSCOC.

Procedure 1 Changes

Require approval prior to implementation; includes a Prospectus (similar to a THEC proposal) and possibly a site visit. Contact the campus SACS COC Liaison for details on preparing the documentation.

5 Significant departure includes number of faculty, new courses, learning resources, equipment and facilities, and other funded requirements.

6 Branch campus as defined by SACS COC: a location of an institution that is geographically apart and independent of the main campus of the institution. A location is independent of the main campus if the location is: permanent in nature; offers courses in educational programs leading to a degree, certificate, or other recognized educational credential; has its own faculty and administrative or supervisory organization; and has its own budgetary and hiring authority.
